Emergency Nutrition Solution to Save Lives and Money

Meals for all

Don't panic... Meals for All has a plan...

“CMS: The final rule will require all inpatient providers to meet the subsistence needs of staff and patients, whether they evacuate or shelter in place, including, but not limited to, food, water, and supplies.” September 8, 2016

Participating Medicare and Medicaid providers and suppliers must follow four well-known industry best practice standards:

1 Emergency Plan:

Perform a risk assessment and develop an emergency plan using an all-hazards approach for the capacities and capabilities for a full spectrum of emergencies or geographic-specific disasters

- Meals for All helps healthcare communities ensure institutional emergency preparedness for uninterrupted nutrition care that saves lives and money.
- Meals for All's professionals can help you assess your current emergency plan needs.
- All meals are RDN planned to meet emergency preparedness and nutritional requirements to avoid costly survey deficiencies saving more money.
- Ask me about this!

2

Policies and Procedures:

Develop and implement policies and procedures based on the plan and risk assessment.

- Meals for All plan is customized to your needs.
- Turn-key written emergency plan
- Serve complete USDA nutritionally balanced meals
- Compliant food on hand at all times with a 10 year shelf life
- Therapeutic and mechanically altered diets
- Easily prepared without utilities or trained staff

3 Communication Plan:

Maintain a communication plan that complies with both federal and state law. Patient care must also be well-coordinated within the facility, across healthcare providers and with state and local public health departments and emergency systems.

- We are happy to share resources on coalitions and community emergency groups.
- Visit the Meals for All - Emergency & Disaster Resources page: <http://mealsforall.com/resources/emergency-disaster-resources/>
